2011 Executive Board Nomination Form

The GPSA is seeking students to take on positions of leadership in the 2011 Executive Board slate to lead the GPSA.

All interested students are asked to complete the following nomination form indicating which position they are interested in and why they are qualified.

Please note that all students are encouraged to get involved with these and other roles. This is a fun way to get involved and work with some great people!

Your full name, contact info and semester enrollment:

Please indicated which position you are interested in:

- President
- Vice-President Academics
- Vice-President Events/Student Involvements
- Vice-President Communications
- Treasurer

Please respond very briefly to the following questions:

Why are you interested in this position and becoming involved with the GPSA?

What qualities do you have which will make you an effective representative for your position of choice? Please give an overview of your experience working in a team or leadership setting. Feel free to be creative!

How do you see yourself contributing to the position you are seeking? Do you have any ideas or other thoughts on how you can enhance the position you are seeking in the GPSA, and the overall student body experience? Please be creative!

Commitment to Position

It is critical that the GPSA Executive Board members fulfill their roles in such a way that reflects positively on the GPSA, the Geography and Planning Department and the University at Albany. Nomination and election to a position will result in a time commitment. Be prepared to honor your commitment to the growth, endurance, strength and success of the GPSA, Planning student body at large, Department of Geography and Planning and the University at Albany overall. Your commitment of time and energy will continue to build a more successful GPSA and MRP program.

Please return by email to planners@ualbanyplanners.org or in person to Omar J. Peters no later than Friday November 12th.

The information you have written above will be compiled verbatim and published on the GPSA website (www.ualbanyplanners.org) in the form of a candidate guide. Good luck!
